PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Joe:

We have just received information concerning Mr. Karl Kittsteiner. This information indicates that he was sentenced to 2 1/2 to 5 years in prison because of his involvement with youth in a sexual manner.

I understand that Mr. Kittsteiner was registered as a Cub Scout leader at one time. Since I have no information in my file at the present time, I would like to know if he should be placed on our confidential file and registration refused in the future.

Please complete the enclosed Confidential Record Sheet and give me any other information which you might have. I am sure this will be enough to put him in our files, since I have copies of many of the police reports; this should be sufficient.

Thanks for your help.

Dear Paul:

Enclosed is a personal and confidential information sheet on Karl H. Kittsteiner, per your request.

Our records indicate that Kittsteiner was charged with molesting a 9-year old boy and, at that time, was housed in the Wayne County jail. We never really received any final disposition of this case.

We worked with the chartered organization, unit leadership, and the State Police during the early part of the investigations and found no evidence that there were any other incidents involving boys in Scouting.

I hope this information will be sufficient for you to make an adequate decision. Please inform us of your decision so we may act accordingly here in Detroit.

Respectfully,

JOE WYCKOFF

The parents indicated that they would pursue prosecution if it is in order, and that [REDACTED] would be willing to give a statement to undersigned on this date.

DATE/TIME/VENUE OF OFFENSE:

m= 42157

INTERVIEW [REDACTED] VICTIM:

[REDACTED] was interviewed at his residence in the presence of his parents. [REDACTED] was evasive at the onset, and had trouble remembering certain instances. He is able to communicate well and relate the events in chronologically good order. [REDACTED] admitted being fondled or "played" with on just about every cub scout meeting he attended. When questioned as to the extent of this fondling and hugging, [REDACTED] advised Mr. KITTSTEINER was always putting his hands on me or having to sit on the suspect's lap.

A statement relative to the night [REDACTED] spent at the KITTSTEINER's residence was addressed. [REDACTED] advised that it was a cold Friday. On this day, KITTSTEINER picked up [REDACTED] and he and the suspect's son went to a BMX race where the suspect's son participated. During the activities, the suspect and [REDACTED] played various video games. During this time the suspect kept telling [REDACTED] that, "you owe me a favor", however, KITTSTEINER never indicated what the "favor" was. After the races were over the three went to the suspect's home. Upon retiring for the evening and being asleep for a short time, the suspect came into the bedroom and woke [REDACTED]. Further advised that the suspect carried him into the living room area and began hugging and touching him. After awhile, the suspect had [REDACTED] touch him. [REDACTED] advised he may have been crying and was upset at what transpired and what KITTSTEINER did was wrong and touched him where he shouldn't be touched.

[REDACTED] advised that whenever he would go to the KITTSTEINER's residence, the suspect would always be hugging and grabbing him. On one occasion, KITTSTEINER picked him up and carried him into a back room, and according to [REDACTED], KITTSTEINER began playing with him. [REDACTED] advised he broke free from the grasp and ran off. [REDACTED] advised during his encounters with KITTSTEINER that the suspect would change his actions and voice dramatically. [REDACTED] further advised that after this encounter (sleep over) he dreaded going to cub scouts and would become ill and even have to miss school. He further advised that during the fondling, the suspect advised [REDACTED] "This is the favor you owe me."

FURTHER:

Per the mailing of a letter to Insp. GROZA by the suspect on 1-22-82, KITTSTEINER detailed the activities he had with [REDACTED]. He further advised that the encounter occurred two weeks prior to January 22, 1982.

FURTHER INVESTIGATION:

Undersigned officer made contact with the registered owner of a vehicle which was seen in the area of the suspect's house on February 1, 1982. The vehicle contained a young white male of cub scout age. The owner, who wishes to remain anonymous, advised that she does have a son who is a cub scout and was back on the day in question but does not attend meetings at the suspect's home on Orangelawn. She advised that her son attends meetings at 9206 California, Livonia, this being the SZAAL residence. An attempt to contact the SZAAL's proved nil. Several neighbors advised that the SZAAL's have two sons in scouting but neither is named [REDACTED].

NOTE: The suspect names the child he molested as being [REDACTED], attends his scout meetings and the boy's father is a lawyer. A source in the neighborhood advised the following. There is a [REDACTED] age nine or so, who attends cub scout meetings and the child's father is a lawyer. Source further advised that they live in the area of Berwick and Elmira Streets in Livonia. Contact made in that area and the [REDACTED] residence located at [REDACTED].

INTERVIEW [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED]

Undersigned apprised the parents of [REDACTED], the extent of the investigation and the likelihood that their son had been assaulted by KITTSTEINER on at least one occasion when [REDACTED] had stayed overnight. The parents did confirm that [REDACTED] did stay overnight but did not tell them of any trouble he had with the suspect. They did advise that on hindsight they recall [REDACTED] being ill several times on the day he had cub scout meetings. They also thought it odd that KITTSTEINER would call them the following morning from the factory and inquire as to what was wrong with [REDACTED]. They also know that their son is KITTSTEINER's favorite. The parents agreed to question their son as to his involvement with KITTSTEINER in regards to sexual encounter.

VICTIM:

[REDACTED], W/M, dob 2-27-72, brn/brn, 65 lbs., [REDACTED]
TX 422-5086.

FURTHER:

The above contact was made on 10-14-82 and the interview by the parents was to take place that evening. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] recontacted undersigned and advised that some type of sexual contact was made on their child, however, [REDACTED] was somewhat apprehensive in detailing the incident.

Further advised that he has plans to meet the boy on 6-4-82 at 24 Mile Road and VanDyke in Shelby Township where there is an indoor track and arcade room. Went onto advise that he is getting frustrated and will do the following: When I see the boy, I am going to give my son a couple bucks and ask the boy if he wants to make an easy five or ten dollars, "I have to get lucky sooner or later." Suspect advised he would be going to the track about 6:00 PM on 6-4-82.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION

On 9-16-81, KARL KITTSTEINER mailed a letter to U.S. Postal Inspector PAUL GROZA, who was acting in an undercover capacity. Mr. KITTSTEINER advised, "I am interested in boys 11-15 years old. If you know how to find one, or have any literature or magazines, please write as I have had no luck with 'chicken' in the last 10 years."

On 12-23-81, he writes to Inspector GROZA and part of his letter was as follows. I have had my eye on a nine year old who is part of my cub scout den. He enjoys my playing his ass and feeling him up all over. Further advised he was sitting on the floor and began fondling the child and obtained an erection.

On 1-22-82, KARL KITTSTEINER writes, I have alot of contact with boys, but let me tell you about the cub and you'll know what I mean. KITTSTEINER advises that again he fondled the legs and crotch of this boy and again obtained an erection. Further stated that after taking his son and the cub, [REDACTED], to bike races, [REDACTED] stayed over night and after putting the boys to bed, he woke [REDACTED] and took him in the family room, sat him on his lap and started playing with his penis. KITTSTEINER put the boy in his bed and got in with him and had an erection at that time. Further stated that he had [REDACTED] put the boy's hand on his penis, and at the same time he, KITTSTEINER, rubbed [REDACTED] buttocks and penis. After a short time, KITTSTEINER put his penis against the boy's buttocks and rubbed the boy's stomach and penis. KITTSTEINER further advised that, "I then asked him to suck me and put his head down by my d--k, boy started crying and said he was sick." Further advise that since that meeting with [REDACTED] he has touched him a couple times since then. Further that if [REDACTED] hasn't told anyone by now, he wouldn't.

CONF000656

DYKES_I_000651

On 2-15-82, KARL KITTSTEINER writes he has had no further luck with [REDACTED] and that KITTSTEINER feels [REDACTED] gets sick every time he, KITTSTEINER, makes advances. That it's a sticky situation being that [REDACTED] father is a lawyer.

On 2-24-82, he wrote a letter indicating he got some good feels in with some of his cub scouts, and hopes to make headway with [REDACTED].

On 3-1-82, Michigan State Police Officers received a note from KITTSTEINER requesting our assistance in finding "chicken", a term known as children for sexual relationship.

D/Sgt. MATTIOLI had six undercover meetings with KARL KITTSTEINER. On all occasions, he asked for help in finding boys. He also repeated his sexual encounters with the cub scout.

On 6-2-82, a search warrant was executed in that a conversation between KITTSTEINER and D/Sgt. MATTIOLI was to be recorded. KITTSTEINER alluded to several sexual encounters he has had with various children. Also offered suggestions on how to secure children for sex. In this recorded statement, KITTSTEINER advised that during the winter [REDACTED] from cub scouts spent the night and advised he got the boy to cry and, "could of gotten in trouble over that one."

On 10-15-82, D/Sgt. MATTIOLI interviewed [REDACTED]. The boy advised that nearly every time he went to cub scouts, KARL KITTSTEINER would hug and sit him on his lap. On the night he, [REDACTED] slept over, he remembers the suspect waking him up and being carried into the front room. Some type of argument ensued and [REDACTED] became upset as to why he, KARL KITTSTEINER, was touching him or why KARL wanted him to touch Mr. KARL KITTSTEINER. [REDACTED] further advised that many times during the day KITTSTEINER told [REDACTED] that he owed him a favor but would not specify what it was. During the encounter in the living room, KITTSTEINER told [REDACTED] "this is the favor you owe me for being your den leader." [REDACTED] advised that KITTSTEINER did touch him and what he did was very wrong. Further advised that the hugging and fondling and the walks to another room where some hugging took place was a common occurrence throughout the cub scout year by KITTSTEINER.

[REDACTED] summarized in saying that KITTSTEINER did in fact hug and touch him and that their argument was over the fact that KITTSTEINER was touching him where he shouldn't. KITTSTEINER instructed the youth not to tell anyone about what happened and that [REDACTED] still owed him a favor. [REDACTED] concluded his statement by advising that one time KITTSTEINER picked him up, carried him into a back room, and started "playing" with him and acting weird and he had to slip out of his grip to escape.

SUMMARY:

Sexual activities with the boy are discussed in detail in letters written by KITTSTEINER to Inspector GROZA, U.S. Postal, using the alias of "TODD". Undercover meetings with KITTSTEINER corroborated what he wrote in the letters and that he was writing to "TODD." A search warrant revealed an admission of contact he had with [REDACTED].

The letters and meetings with KITTSTEINER revealed his desire for investigators to get children for him. The interview of [REDACTED] revealed that KITTSTEINER as stated in his letters and conversations, was very fond of the child. KITTSTEINER, according to the boy, hugged and played with him every time they were together. On the night he slept over, [REDACTED] remembers being touched by KITTSTEINER, being asked to touch the suspect, and becoming upset and shaken as to what was happening. He remembers being told that he owes the suspect a favor and was instructed not to tell anyone what happened this night. [REDACTED] advised that since the contact with KITTSTEINER, he has dreaded returning and sometimes would be sick so he wouldn't have to attend meetings.
